Le temps passe tu n'es pas là
Je ressens chaque jour, ta présence derrière moi
Comme si ton nom suivait mes pas
Ma vie se casse et je me noie
Ton visage au rivage me rappelle te accroche toi
Mais mes forces m'abandonnent je ne sens plus mes bras
Je me sens lasse, seule ici bas, je perds pieds
Ma tristesse est telle que mes larmes couvrent le sol
Je ne peux plus faire face je me suis désistée
Je deviens folle, plus rien n'est drôle
Si tout se brise à mes côtés
C'est que je cherche un sourire de ta part quelque part Une larme, un regard, un baiser
Une phrase, un espoir, pour me sentir aimée

Refrain :

Je ne suis plus rien sans toi
Je te cherche mais n'te vois pas
Bonne nuit j't'en prie réponds-moi
Apporte-moi ta force
Je ne suis plus rien sans toi
Je te cherche mais n'te vois pas
Je t'en supplie reviens-moi
Ou que le diable m'emporte

T-North :

I hear you well my precious
But I can't do anything about it and the fact I can do nothing about it eats me alive
From inside, it's hard not being able to touch you, not being able to talk to you anymore being elsewhere while I'm there You say I've neglected you, abandoned you, but I've never been as close to you as I am now, just so you can feel it
My baby, open your eyes
I know you miss me
Do you hope for something when you make a wish?

Unfortunately, I will never come back
And don't listen to what people will tell you about me
And don't turn around, remember who I was Remember how much you loved me, you took me back after throwing me away After ups and downs, baby, now your duty (your challenge) is to prevent from falling and to not ever give up It's hard for you, I know it because I see you, always being by your side, I am there to watch over you

Refrain :

Je ne suis plus rien sans toi
Je te cherche mais n'te vois pas
BÃ©bÃ© j't'en prie rÃ©ponds-moi
Apporte-moi ta force
Je ne suis plus rien sans toi
Je te cherche mais n'te vois pas
Je t'en supplie reviens-moi
Ou que le diable m'emporte

Kenza Farah :

And if I were able, more than once, I would hug you tightly
Feeling my body huddling against your chest
I would sure have the force to fight, to confront the memories
I've given up, I don't want to fight back anymore, I want you and your voice to support me

T- North :

No, my love, don't let go, hang on, I am there, I know you don't know it, but look around you
I'm doing everything so that you can realize it, but after my death you ask me yourself to prove you Baby, you claim that I've chosen this life, but it's for you that I've formed and I've built the house My vow was to put you in a safe place, you and the children, it's for your happiness that today my blood shed

Kenza Farah :

If I were able, more than once, I would hug you tightly
Feeling my body huddling against your chest
Oh, if only I were able, more than once, to see again the love in your eyes
A last "goodbye" would make me feel hopeful again.
