Keren Ann Lyrics

Spanish Bird Song

Home is like a river of goodbye
Without a summer lullaby
Since you are gone
No one rings the bell from what I've heard
I'm all alone just like a bird
Without a song

Life is an endless parade
It's no sweet lemonade
Only an empty bottle left in the shade

Oh boy, what have I done to make you go
Where is the sun, where is the snow
When you're away
Roses seems to fade upon my sight
Since you have left there is no night
There is no day

Life is an endless parade
It's no sweet lemonade
Only an empty bottle left in the shade
Oh boy...

Only an empty bottle left here under the shade
