Heart Attack Lyrics

(Verse 1)

There's a feelin I cant express and it isn't pain Palpitations in my chest that I cant explain (baby you the cause and cure everything the doctor is for)
Your the medicine for the state I'm in my love
prescription
(You make me weak in the knees you make me scream baby please)
Call the ambulance and check me in, cause it hit me.

(Chorus)

It hit me like a heart attack I never knew that love can knock me over like that (oh yes it did)
My feet it started skippin and my heart started trippin
when you walked into the room
I wasnt ready for no heart attack I never knew that love can knock me over like that (never never knew boy) Somebody call the peramedic and tell them to get my room ready just in case I cant get over you

(Verse 2)

Sometimes I swear Im bout to die what can I take Cause this infliction that I got so hard to shake Oh yes it is darling (Baby you the cause and cure everything the doctor is for)
Your the medicine for the state I'm in my love
prescription
(You make me weak in the knees you make me scream baby please) Call the ambulance and check me in , cause it hit me.

(Chorus)

It hit me like a heart attack I never knew that love can knock me over like that
when you walked into the room
I wasnt ready for no heart attack I never knew that love can knock me over like that

Somebody call the paramedic and tell them to get my room ready just in case I can't get over you

(Bridge)

911 it's an emergency can you call them (silently: "I don't know what happened, oh ok, oh my god")

911 bring the respirator I can't breathe
(silently: "I can't breathe oh my God")

(Chorus)

It hit me like a heart attack I never knew that love can
knock me over like that
My feet it started skippin and my heart started trippin
when you walked into the room
I wasn't ready for no heart attack I never knew that love
can knock me over like that Somebody call the paramedic and tell them to get my room ready.
