There's a white picket fence and tangerines
Cherry blossoms and SUVs
There's two and a half
It's two and a half
It's your perfect wife and your perfect mistress
Fighting over your perfect fortress
That you bought with a super high interest

Who cares about integrity
When money can buy you decency

Don't tell me your life sucks
You pay five bucks
For a man who wants to mop the floor in your factory
You live oh so happily

(Then I whisper in your ear
Something you don't wanna hear)

There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Getting under your skin)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(It's gonna eat you from within)
I'll make you sick, sick to your stomach
(From the very first bite)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Your vicious, vicious appetite)

Get discount plastic surgery
A package deal for the family
You can't be cheap when it comes to the good stuff
You're the only thing that they don't get the best of
You cover up by acting real tough
Perfection is the only thing money loves

Got a car for her sweet sixteen
Got high on weed and cocaine
And drove your Bentley, not so gently
Into the neighbors house accidentally
Who cares for serenity?

(Then I whisper in your ear

Something you don't want to hear)

There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Getting under your skin)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(It's gonna eat you from within)
I'll make you sick, sick to your stomach
(From the very first bite)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Your vicious, vicious appetite)

(Truth hurts)
It hurts like hell
(Truth hurts)
Here, take a pill
(Truth hurts)
Prescription pill
(Truth hurts)
You're safe until

There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Getting under your skin)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(It's gonna eat you from within)

(Here, take a pill)
I'll make you sick, sick to your stomach
(From the very first bite)
There's a worm in your pretty red apple
(Your vicious, vicious appetite)
