Dont cry,
you know, we all make mistakes
some of them are hard to forget
dont cry,
some of them can break us,
it feels like no one's out there to help.

They will all forgive,
they know that youÃ,Â´ve felt empty inside
and they have always seen ,everything you tried to hide.
Everything, everything.

It doesn't matter , it doesn't matter at all,
if you fall, when you're broken and small.
Oh whatever, everything's is there for something,
everything's meant to be.

Oh, they will all forgive.
They know youÃ,Â´ve felt empty inside,
they have always seen.

Everything youÃ,Â´ve tried to hide.
Everything, everything.

Everyone's the chosen one,
we have come to learn it all,
we are here so let us grow,
we all fall and we all should know.
It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter, it doesn't matter, because
they will all forgive.

They know that youÃ,Â´ve felt empty inside,
and they have always seen.
Everything youÃ,Â´ve tried to hide,
everything youÃ,Â´ve tried to hide,
everything youÃ,Â´ve tried to hide.
Everything, everything
