Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you drive me crazy

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you are my baby

Won't you listen now?
Your eyes, your smile, your moves, your style
Oh, you got me open for a while
I can explain, what you do to me
Boy, you're drivin' me insane
Can you recall the spell you put me under?
Didn't have time to wonder, where do we go from here?
That's the only thing that I fear and I love you, boy

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you drive me crazy

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you are my baby

Baby, you've got me goin'
In circles and around and 'round
But I won't give up on you, no
Because you're what makes me happy
No, no, no, no, I'll never
Give up on you, I'll treasure
Every little thing that you do
Girl, I really love you

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you drive me crazy

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you are my baby

You've got me open on your love
Can't live without you
And you're all I'm dreamin' of
And yes, it's only you
That my heart beats for
It's your love
And you're everything that I need
And ever wanted

Every night before I lay
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
Then I would pray to
See your face the very next day
'Cause you drive me crazy

Every night before I lay
If you wasn't laying beside me
