yea yea yeaaa
its just the little things baby i'm catchin a flight from L.A. it's been three weeks since i've seen your face touchin down at a quater past three lucky you, you must be home asleep i wait for my bags they takin so long bout to call a cab to take me home thats when i feel a touch from behind turn around your right before my eyes standin there i cant believe you came its three oclock in the mornin and its pourin rain(theres something about it) the kind of love you bring cant put my finger on it i guess it must be all these things CHORUS
the little things that you do they make my heart beat for you(all these things) the little things mean so much you remind each time we touch(its all the little things) all the little things that you do yea yea
i sleep through the mornin and wake up at two just cant wait to spend the day with you i head downstairs and the first thing i see theres a note there that waitin sayin theres a concert tonight i thoudht you'd want to go i hear that alicia's got a real good show sometimes it seems you think of everything you never cease to amaze me you know im loving all these things
all the things you do(all the things, all the things that you do pretty baby) keep me lovin you(oooohhh yeaaaa)
all these things
ooohh yea
