Pretty boy, you're really creeping me out
I think you're mental, just following me around
I turn the corner, oh look what I found
A psychotic, sexual predator hanging downtown
I can see eyes in my window

Your love has got me on the run
Looking down the barrel of a loaded gun
You're lost, you think you're getting some
I will never, I will never, baby
I would never, Na-Na-Na-Never, baby
Na-Na-Na-never, baby

Scary boy, you think we've fallen in love
You call me baby but I'm calling 911
I open my eyes, oh look what I see
A psychotic, sexual creep standing over me
I can see eyes in my window

Your love has got me on the run
Looking down the barrel of a loaded gun
You're lost, you think you're getting some
I will never, I will never, baby

Your love was done when it begun
You'll wait forever, I'm your only one
You're lost, you think you're getting some
I will never, I will never, baby
I would never, Na-Na-Na-Never, baby

You're following my footstep
Like you're tracing my tracks
I-I-I think you're on the hunt for me
You light up my back
I-I-I know there might
Have been a time or even a place

Maybe when hell is freezing over
Now get out of my face
I can see eyes in my window

Your love has got me on the run
Looking down the barrel of a loaded gun
You're lost, you think you're getting some
I will never, I will never, baby

Your love was done when it begun
You'll wait forever, I'm your only one
You're lost, you think you're getting some
I will never, I will never, baby
I would never, Na-Na-Na-Never, baby
I would never, Na-Na-Na-Never, baby
