We were lovers in a past life
I can see it your green eyes
Maybe you were one of my wives
In a long lost tribe

There's just something bout' you I know
It started centuries ago, though you see your kiss is like a lost ghost
Only I would know

But I, I keep on fallin'
For you

(Chorus)
Time after time
Time after time
I'll make you mine
Time after...
Time after time

See, millenniums ago, love
We were nothing more than stardust
Just the galaxy beneath us
You found me
Then we made it through the Ice Age
But I lost you in the crusades
I built the pyramids for you, babe
Just to see your face

But I, I keep on falling
For you

(Chorus)
Time after time
Time after time
I'll make you mine
Time after...
Time after time
Yeah...

Time after Time...
Time after Time...

Time after Time...
Time after Time...
Time after Time...
Time after Time...
