You're shining ultra violet
I'll be your rainbow bride
You'll be that silver line
In the darkness of the night

It was written in the stars of curiosity
And since now we're falling hard with you, everything you need
I got you, you got me and we're turning off the speed
The city closed us down, babe

This is such a strange love
Caught me by surprise
We'll catch the moon set
Watching side by side
Until the sun rise and our eyes collide
This is such a strange love
(This is such a strange love)

You're in my line of fire
Locked and load the beat of light
Just like the love and mc Turry
And bring me back to life

It was written in the stars of curiosity
Like a bullet to my heart when you swept me off my feet
I got you, you got me and we'll never go to sleep
'Cause the city closed us down

This is such a strange love
Caught me by surprise
We'll catch the moon set
Watching side by side
Until the sun rise and our eyes collide
This is such a strange love
(This is such a strange love)

This is such a strange love
Crazy roll the dice
We'll catch the moon set
Sipping diamond eyes
Until the sun rise over paradise
This is such a strange love
(This is such a strange love)

Have you ever felt so out of mind (such a strange love)
I'll move by the highlight purple sky (such a strange love)
Never gonna come down (this is such a strange love)
(This is such a strange love)

This is such a strange love
Caught me by surprise
We'll catch the moon set
Watching side by side
Until the sun rise and our eyes collide
This is such a strange love
(This is such a strange love)

This is such a strange love
Crazy roll the dice
We'll catch the moon set
Sipping diamond eyes
Until the sun rise over paradise
This is such a strange love
(This is such a strange love)
