[Ke$ha]

I don't know what you expected to find
Here after all
Someone you remember leaving behind
I'm not that girl
So many silent words
I'm just learning to say
You cannot break me
Like you broke me down, yesterday

[Hook]

You better know just what you came here for Yeah, you better know
You can't intoxicant me like you did before
Say my love is not a game that you'll play
Better prove it or get walking away
If you don't care how I feel
I'll find someone who will

[Ke$ha]

If you're thinking you can turn back the clock
Don't waste your time
If you're pretending to be someone your not
I'll read your mind
So many pieces of me falling into place
It feels so good
To stand up for myself, face to face

[Hook]

You better know just what you came here for Yeah, you can't intoxicant me, underestimate me anymore
Say my love is not a game that you'll play
Better prove it or get walkin away
If you don't care how I feel
I'll find someone who will

[Bridge]

Not convinced that you can keep it together
Make me believe it's real or it's for never Fool me once and i'm as blind as can be Fool me twice and the joke is on me!

But i'll be watching every breath that you breathe

[Hook]

You better know just what you came here for

Yeah, you can't intoxicant me, hyperventilate me
anymore

Say my love is not a game that you'll play

Better prove it or get walkin away

If you don't care how I feel

You better know I will
