Night fighters burning up the night
Night fighters what a beautiful sight
Night fighters streaking through the sky
Night fighters what a way to die
Night fighters they're on your trail
You'll get a sidewinder right up your tail
Night fighters underneath the moon
Night fighters coming your way soon
Night fighters screaming through the night
Night fighters make the darkness bright
Night fighters better prick up your ears
Could be the last thing that you'll ever hear
Night fighters waiting for the dawn
Night fighters waiting snug and warm
Night fighters tearing down the track
Never knowing if they're coming back
Night fighters better hold your breath
Cos here they come those angels of death
Night fighters- the speed the skill
They spend their lives learning how to kill
Night fighters like a shooting star
Night fighters wonder where they are
Night fighters supersonic boom
Night fighters coming your way soon
