"All Because"

Joybells ringing
Angels singing
All because a child was born
A time of sharing people caring
all because a child was born

There in a manger long ago
It was the perfect night
When you came into this world
A star shone oh so bright

Hearts were wanting anticipating
all because a child was born
A gift was given for the living
all because a child was born
You brought love and laughter Peace to all mankind and we celebrate Christmas morn

all because a child was born
