"Beg"

When we first started going out I knew it wasn't right
You always made me feel like I was too afraid to try
And now it seems that in the end you want to start a fight
And I can't take it no more
I'm getting sick and tired

You used to really love me
Now you can't look me in the eye
And all these tears are pouring
They flood my eyes

You can beg
You can plead (You can plead)
I'm a leave (I'm a leave)
'Cause you made it like that
I hit the door but I stopped in my tracks
Love, love, brought me right back

You can beg
You can plead (You can plead)
I'm a leave (I'm a leave)
'Cause you made it like that
I hit the door but I stopped in my tracks
Love, love, brought me right back
We can try another
But in the end it won't last

The rules are no more late night phone calls
Acting like you get enough
When you hear my footsteps down the hall
And I won't take any of your lies
Wastin' all of my time
Seems you're never satisfied

Our love has almost ended
'Cause you don't treat me right

You can beg
You can plead (You can plead)
I'm a leave (I'm a leave)

'Cause you made it like that
I hit the door but I stopped in my tracks
Love, love, brought me right back

And I'm not trying to complicate things
But this game you got playing with my heart
Is finally ending

You can beg
You can plead (You can plead)
I'm a leave (I'm a leave)
'Cause you made it like that
I hit the door but I stopped in my tracks
Love, love, brought me right back

You can beg
You can plead (You can plead)
I'm a leave (I'm a leave)
'Cause you made it like that
I hit the door but I stopped in my tracks
Love, love, brought me right back
