Sometimes I lie awake
The weight of the world on my mind
I worry 'bout
What I leave behind

Too much to think about
What you would live without
If I ran out of time

If these were the last words
That I ever got to tell you, I ever got to say
The last words
To carry you every night and day
Everything I ever thought but never got around to saying
Even if you already knew
Nothing in my life ever mattered more than you

Sometimes I wake up
I turn around and see your face
Strangely enough
It's the best part of my day

I hate to think of it
The moments I would miss
Livin' in loneliness

If these were the last words
That I ever got to tell you, I ever got to say
The last words
To carry you every night and day
Everything I ever thought but never got around to
saying
Even if you already knew
Nothing in my life ever mattered more than you

Tomorrow I will kiss you
Like I never have to miss you

If these were the last words
That I ever got to tell you, I ever got to say
The last words

To you
If these were the last words
That I ever got to tell you, I ever got to say
The last words
To carry you every night and day
Everything I ever thought but never got around to
saying
Even if you already knew
Nothing in my life ever mattered more than you
Nothing in my life ever mattered more than you

If these were the last words
That I ever got to tell you
