I will lay you down
I will lay you down
I will stand a upon your wicken grave and spit a upon ground
I will lay you down

No matter whose to blame
No matter whose to blame
With every breath I breathe
Pure hatred of your name
No prays are spoken here
Nor cross a upon your graves
No matter whose to blame

As far my bloodline go
As far this bloodline goes
For you and yours this is the end
And you will never know
How far my bloodline goes

I will lay you down
I will lay you down
I will stand a upon your frozen grave
Spit on the ground
I will lay you down
