I think I thought so much about losing you
That I never really had you
You spend so much time
You spend so much time
When you think you've got all the time in the world
And I turned you into
A conversation piece
And the things you take for granted
Turn out to be the things that you need I'm timing my breath against the backbeat of your footsteps
As we walk along cobble stone streets
Arms at are sides to deliberate
Eyes on the ground
Counting down to when we can talk out loud

Move on, Steady now
Move on, Move on, Move on You're letting a good one go
You're letting a good one go
