I go to the places where you are
I find you hanging out
I paste my eyes wide open
And I turn everything inside out
And I am turning into everything I hate
And you are graceful and absolutely fake
I am fake
I hear you laughing "am I proud of you"
And I am turning into everything I hate
And you are graceful and absolutely fake
I hope you're proud
I'm not changing
I hope you're proud
I'm not changing
And I'm trying to be quiet
I'm trying to be quiet
It's not working
