Sometimes in the morning, my coffee gets ice cold
And I'll burn up three cigarettes, before I have my first smoke
Miss my exit on the way to work every now and then I always blame it on the traffic when they ask me where I've been

And in a crowded elevator, I'll start hummin' that ol' song
There's no way of knowin' when that urge will come along
I've been stuck in some meeting, looked down at my legal pad
I'd see hearts and flowers and butterflies, and I can't help but laugh

That's just a dirt road, summer '89
That's just a back seat, and some Muscadine wine
That's just auburn hair brushing cross my cheek
And those "kiss me" green eyes smilin' back at me
That's just my mind, jumpin' fences once again
But, I'll be fine, once I get it rowed back in
I know sometimes I may act a little crazy
But that's just Jesse

An sometimes in the evening, I hear barefeet in the hall
And I see your slender silhouette, dance across the hall
Then I catch the sent of jasmine perfume in the wind
And I know it's her sweet memory coming back again

That's just a dirt road, summer '89
That's just a back seat, and some Muscadine wine
That's just auburn hair brushing cross my cheek
And thos "kiss me" green eyes smilin' back at me
That's just my mind, jumpin' fences once again
But, I'll be fine, once I get it rowed back in
I know sometimes I may act a little crazy

But that's just Jesse, in a white cotten dress
That's just a wildfire that I ain't put out yet

That's just auburn hair brushing cross my cheek
And those "kiss me" green eyes smilin' back at me
That's just my mind, jumpin' fences once again
But, Ill be fine, once I get it rowed back in
I know sometimes I may act a little crazy
But that's just Jesse
