You probably don't wear your glasses
But you probably need them to read
And you probably value your downtime
And you probably don't get much sleep

And you probably don't like the movies
But you probably go anyway
And you probably fight with your parents a lot
When you feel like there's nothing to say

And you probably don't care for punk rock
But you probably own Nevermind
And you probably don't talk to strangers
But you wish they'd talk to you all the time

So I should probably say something to you
But I'd probably ruin it then
It's best for us both if I keep my mouth shut
And just stay on my side of the train
Bada, baba, babamm, bada, babamm
Bada, bada, dada
