Cats and crafts put you in a tiny box
That's filled with our victims
Who can't explain how they love their moms

And all the hands that retreat
They try to slip right down their pussy
But there's nothing that you thought is wrong

But you are too beautiful to fuck
You're too beautiful
You are too beautiful to fuck
You're too beautiful

Slice my eyes, took me through
Another night that goes all night through
Tries to seize what their hearts have lost

My best friend took me in
And made me down decide my own sins
And I said, "Can you please forgive the love?"

'Cause you are too beautiful to fuck
You're too beautiful
You're too beautiful
