She was alone at a table for two
I said, "Now's the time to make my move"
So I got me a beer, and I bought her a sex on the beach
She saw that umbrella stuck in the glass
That chunk of pineapple made her laugh
She took the beer from my hand, and said, "Thank ya, man"
I didn't take her for the long neck kind
She said, "Boy, have you lost your mind"

"Hell yeah, I like beer
"It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
"Not just every now and then
"I'm talkin' three hundred sixty five days a year
"I can do it around the clock
"I don't like just a little, ooh, I like it alot, even hot
"Hell yeah, I like beer"

Ooh, I love it

Yeah, it's good for your heart, it's good for your mind
It's good for gettin' through a lonely, ole night
Everybody knows you shouldn't drink too much
So, why's it seem like there's never enough

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talkin' three hundred sixty five days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like just a little, ooh, I like it alot, even hot
Hell yeah, I like beer

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talkin' three hundred sixty five days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like just a little, ooh, I like it alot, even hot
Hell yeah, I like beer

Everybody, now, c'mon

Hell yeah, I like beer
It gets me grinnin' from ear to ear
Not just every now and then
I'm talkin' three hundred sixty five days a year
I can do it around the clock
I don't like just a little, ooh, I like it alot, even hot
Hell yeah, I like beer

Hell yeah
(Hell yeah! )
Hell yeah, I like beer

Yes, I do
Hell yeah
Hell yeah, I like beer
