Oh no look at the sun
Here it comes another Monday
Without warning man time shoots down the drain
Take a look your life is over
Did you pick a four leaf clover?
Anyway you end, you end anyway
I pray for the rain
And then I start to dance insane
Won't you follow me then?
This one's for all you people
Who hit the rock bottom but climbed it back up again
Oh lord where are you now?
Clouds as dark as midnight vulture's
Hovering, the cover me I need you know
Lead me on, take me somewhere
Don't leave me falling backwards
Anyway you end, you end anyway
I pray for the rain
And then I start to dance again
Won't you follow me then
This one's for all you people
Who hit the rock bottom but climbed back up again
This is me looking at you
I can't tell you what were gonna do girl
But I will let you know
I will be here standing with the blueprint and the schematic
For your life child...
This one's for all you people...yeah
This one's for all you people
Who hit the rock bottom and climbed it back up again...oh yeah.
