We wrote these words together love
To free our own
We speak of pasts, moved many lives,
These dreams they come and go.
Who we are is all we know
Do you miss me still?
Who we are is all I know
How I've missed you since you've gone.
Set free the lovers

And the lovers they only live in grace
Today tomorrow and yesterday
And true lovers they only share this space
Today tomorrow and yesterday
Set free the lovers

We broke these words like enemies
They tear down their own
We left the gates wide open love
But locked away our souls
Who we are is all I know and I miss you still
Who we are is all I know
And I miss you

And the lovers, they only live in grace
Today tomorrow and yesterday
And true lovers they only share this space
Today tomorrow
And the lovers, they only live in grace
Today tomorrow and yesterday
And true lovers they only share this space
Tomorrow and yesterday...
Lovers never see...
