It's 10 O' clock in the morning, time to get out from that bed.

The new day is calling, there's work to do.
But she still says; "Why don't you stay by me".

He's the window cleaning man.

As he arrives at the workplace, everybody knows his name.

He'll keep them talking for an hour.
Before they finally go insane, he'll get the work done too.

He's the window cleaning man.

But when the evening comes. He really comes to life.
He's got the bowling blues. He's gonna bowl all night.

There may be reasons for his actions. Maybe he's the one to blame.
But he's the main attraction, the master of the game.
And he's a good man too.

He's the window cleaning man.

But when the evening comes. He really comes to life.
He's got the bowling blues. He's gonna bowl all night.

Musical Solo

But when the evening comes. He really comes to life.
He's got the bowling blues. He's gonna bowl all night.

He's got the bowling blues. He's got the bowling blues.
This man will never loose. He's got the bowling blues.
He's got the bowling blues. He's got the bowling blues.
This man will never loose. He's got the bowling blues.
And he's all right.

He's got the bowling blues. He's got the bowling blues.
This man will never loose. He's got the bowling blues.
He's got the bowling blues. He's got the bowling blues.

This man will never loose. He's got the bowling blues.
And he's all right.
