

Kevin Parent "Same Kind"

Visit "Same Kind" on MotoLyrics.com

I went to play on St-John's Street.
I was hoping that you would come and see me,
and we could finally meet.
But you didn't show up,
even though I played a whole week.
You must have someone.
I hope that he's a nice guy.
Yes I hope that someone knows how to make you smile.
And went you're down,
he holds you when you cry,
without having a reason, without even asking why.
Cause I know, you have sorrow in your eyes.
I know, that it's been there for a long long while.
I know, but I don't mind so do I, We're both the same kind.
I saw you a few years ago,
but for you, I was only a child.
You probably don't remember me,
but I do, you sure made me shy.

It was when my feelings meant more than sex,
those were the times.
Your beauty caressed my inside,
like a warm summer wind blowing on chimes.
Cause I know, you have sorrow in your eyes.
I know, that it's been there for a long long while.
Yes I know, but I don't mind so do I, we're both the same kind.
And as I savour this bottle of wine.
I'll try to forget this cruel world full of crime.
I'll think of you for comfort once and a while.
And even if I'm not in your heart, you're in mine.
Cause I know, you have sorrow in your eyes.
I know, that it's been there for a long long while.
I know, but I don't mind so do I,
we're both the same kind

