I can see that you're a million miles
From the place you would want to be
I know you think that you are just a shadow
Of someone you used to be

So paint a picture of your days gone by
Dig out all your favourite photographs
Put them in a frame for you to see
You're as beautiful as you used to be

Lay in bed and watch the rain outside
- if it makes you feel good
Just start laughing for no reason at all
- if it makes you feel good
Hold the hand of the one you care for
- if it makes you feel good
Why don't you tell me what is on your mind
- if it's gonna make you feel good

You have over analysed your situation
You're dizzy trying to figure out what's wrong
But it's just a season thing you're in
And you know that it won't last forever more

You're just moving uncomfortably slow
And things aren't moving in the way you want to go
And you're getting tired of being insecure
But I know your pain, cause I have felt the same

Lay in bed and watch the rain outside
- if it makes you feel good
Just start laughing for no reason at all
- if it makes you feel good
Hold the hand of the one you care for
- if it makes you feel good
Why don't you tell me what is on your mind
- if it's gonna make you feel good

Wait on me tonight everything's gonna be alright
No more crying eyes everything's gonna be alright

Lay in bed and watch the rain outside

- if it makes you feel good
Just start laughing for no reason at all
- if it makes you feel good
Hold the hand of the one you care for
- if it makes you feel good
Why don't you tell me what is on your mind
- if it's gonna make you feel good
