She loves more than lemonade
I know, she tells me all the time
She loves my crazy masquerades
I know, cause she secretly smiles when I look the other way

We've been talking to some high profile fools
And they say you're only worth what you own
Well it must be pleasing living sleazy in designer suits
And work a hundred hour weeks, so you can pay the deficit you owe
On all the cars and pink champagne
But that's not the way we want to be

No we never,
Have a lot of money
When we're driving to the south coast - music loud - windows down
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Walking 'round the beach towns
Holding hands, asking who takes cash, and who's the cheapest around
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Singing like a rich man

She loves to go explore the great outdoors
I'm not opposed, but I suppose I'll do it for her
We're passing all the workers working in the tower blocks
And the city all lit up like a Christmas tree
And we are passing by waving goodbye

No we never,
Have a lot of money
When we're driving to the south coast - music loud - windows down
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Walking 'round the beach towns
Holding hands, asking who takes cash, and who's the cheapest around
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Singing like a rich man

And all the riches in the world
Can't be worth more than a girl
Who will love you in spite of everything you are I ain't trying to be romantic
I just can't understand loving something that won't love you

She loves more than lemonade
I know, she tells me all the time
She tells me all the time
Yes, she tells me all the time

No we never,
Have a lot of money
When we're driving to the south coast - music loud - windows down
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Walking 'round the beach towns
Holding hands, asking who takes cash, and who's the cheapest around
Singing so they hear us "ooohhh"
Singing like a rich man
Singing like a rich man
Singing like a rich man
