Hey, the sun is shining looking like another wonderful day

Look through my sweet collection

Trying to find some good music to play

While I'm getting ready to face the world

Doing what I must do, know sugar

Nothing compares to waking up this morning to you

Good morning

Baby, how you been?

Did you sleep well last night honey?

Well, I'm off to work again

Listen, I'll call you later

Maybe we can get something to eat

Yeah, how about our favorite restaurant darling

Where we usually eat? Alright

I said whew! Umm um, sure looking mighty fine

I can hardly wait for quitting time

Good afternoon baby

I sure missed you while I was gone

But you know I got to work honey

Hey, let's just do something later on

Let's go for a walk nothing gets you in the mood

Better than a little moonlight

Or we can rent some movies

And make it a blockbuster night, hey

Does that sound interesting baby? Sound like an idea?

I would gladly walk you home but you're already here

Good night baby

I spent the whole day with my friend

Hopefully God will wake me up baby

To see you in the morning

Oh child

Oh because you everything, everything, everything to me

Oh yeah girl, I need your love each and everyday, hey

hey

Child

Good night baby
