Well I wandered around after hours of words and I waited in vain here for weeks.
The ghost of a girlfriend that's here in my room
I still smell her perfume in my sheets

But she's not here in my bed no she's out on the town and I don't want anyone to see there's a tattoo of my name on her body
but honestly,
the man holding her hand ain't me.

Oh Honey, how could you regret me when you can't even forget me?

Babe, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)
Still think of you (all night long)
Oh, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)
Still thinking of you (all night long)

I thought that once you've had one you've had every woman
Until I lost this legendary woman
SHIT
now I'm sure that they don't make em like her anymore
So please, Baby
Please, Lover
Let's find a way to forgive eachother
I've gotten around ever since you've been gone but without you I'm still alone

Oh how can you regret me when you know you can't forget me?

Babe, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)

Still think of you (all night long)
Oh, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)
Still thinking of you (all night long)

I made mistakes, I'm only human and I am not ashamed to say That you are the one.
Oooooooooo Baby

Babe, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)
Still think of you (all night long)
Oh, it's ok
To say that you love me
I think of you (all night long)
Still thinking of you (all night long)
