Today nothing's new
Everyone in this place is routine
Everything is just mainstream
Feels like the air ain't so fantastic
Even the ground turns into plastic

Just take a look at what you do
Its like a printing machine with copies all around you
And we all sometimes can't make it
So go ahead Hey fuck it and fake it

As we fight for originality
We fall in line

So don't fight
Don't try
Look yourself straight in the eye
Who are you little Lucy?
Not Dolce or Juicy
Not Prada or Gucci
Just look yourself blind in the eye, hunny
You don't have to try

So the wall has been broken
Every word has been respoken
Different or rebellion
Its all normal, your no fellow
As numerous as they come
These Friday nights are Barbie dolls of fun
And if your standing in the sun, hunny
Don't be like everyone

As we strive for change
It's still the same

So don't fight
Don't try
Look yourself straight in the eye
Who are you little Lucy?
Not Dolce or Juicy
Not Prada or Gucci

Just look yourself blind in the eye, hunny
You don't have to try

So but some converse on your toes
Get a pricing in your nose
Buy some cds of punk rock
Be an outcast of the outcast flock
Buy some pants made out of linen
And buy boots with your jeans tucked in 'em

So don't fight
Don't try
Look yourself straight in the eye
Who are you little Lucy?
Just look yourself blind in the eye, hunny
You don't have to try

Change is all the same
You're real as it gets
