She smiles at anything bright
I wish I could be that light

Her face lights up when the suns' in her eyes
I wish that I could be that sky

Cause when she smiles my world lights up
I could feel her filling' my empty cup

Thoughts of you I'm chasing through my head
You're the one I'm chasing Am I mislead?

Doesn't matter the depth of the water I'm in Cause I'd do anything to see you grin

I love how we walk into the night
If I had my way I'd stay there until daylight

I want to be all I can be, all I could be, for her
We'll rest here; we'll stay here without a blur

And when she smiles at me I melt
This could be the best thing I've ever felt

She is all I see
Makes me be all I can be
Takes away my gravity
Speaks in perfect harmony
Walks with perfect melody
My most recent memory
Doesn't have to do with Mr.Mancini
Just like a simile

And with all my honesty
