I don't want nobody better off alone
I'm sworn to independence
My heart is made of stone
But your breaking on thru there's something about you

I've been tapping my toes to the way you talk
I've been singing along when I watch the way you walk
I've got to do something about you

I got this place of mine it's nice and quiet
And I like it fine
I work real hard got no time for you
I've whiskeyed up my coffee cup
I'm sitting here trying not to call you up
And it getting to where I don't know what to do
Something bout you

SOLO

There something about you like distance thunder
I can't say I ain't been warned
Even if there is no shelter to crawl under Heavens gonna save me from this storm

There's something about you babe I can't shake
There's something about you that's been keeping me
awake
The whole night thru something about you

I got this life of mine it's nice and quiet
And I like it fine
I work real hard got no time for you
I've whiskeyed up my coffee cup
I'm sitting here trying not to call you up
And it getting to where I don't know what to do
Something bout you
