[Spoken] Greetings beotchies. Take off your pants.

KATY

I know a place where the girls are always meaner
If you ain't rich, they're goin' nowhere near your wiener

Sippin' Starbucks venti skinny mocha chai tea with foam
Drivin' Escalades while they're texting and re-tweeting on i-phones

KATY

You can try to approach us, but we're all the same we don't care what your name is We'll look at you for a second, but that's just to make sure that you're not famous

California girls we're unreliable
Never worked a day in our lives
Hybrid Dogs in bags we leave em' in the car

DOG

OWOWOWOWOW

California girls we're so predictable
Hottest bodies money can buy

Spray tanned silicone boobs are indestructable

Boing Boing Boing Boing Boing

SNOOP

Sign your name on the dotted line
Don't need brains if that ass is fine

Once you cross the L.A. Border
You develop an eating disorder

Sell your soul, dance on the pole
Bang Charlie Sheen just for a role

Nose jobs, tummy tucks
These are the girls I like to... hang out with Inflate your lips. Loose the hips

See through shirts show off your nips

Paparazzi is everywhere
Oops forgot your underwear

Katy my Lady, I'm all up on ya
Cus you're representin' California

But you know I'd still be all up in ya
Even if that ass was from Virginia

And you know that you can bet your butt
That I'd do girls from Connecticut

I could really fill my booty quota
By bangin' out ho's from Minnesota

KATY
California Girls we are so desperate
Sold our souls for fortune and fame
Soon we'll look like Cher or Melanie Griffith

OW OW OW OW AGHH

"California Gurls" is so repetitive
All Pop sounds exactly the same
It's the same beat from that other song that Kesha did
OWOWOWOW
