You know what? I won't lie about it, you know me I'm feeling like I couldn't go no more Because I feel now for real I never would have trust him my... let me do it, no
So many times I've been hurt before, my soul won't let... walk through the door Cause nothing compares doing that song one more see How strong these feelings are deep inside
They know there is nowhere that you can hide Your love hurt baby and I just couldn't hide it if I try Rather keep it deep inside than let me feelings show... now
I know I can't do you I can only do me
And God knows oh why
I used to be doing love, confused in love
No way in knowing what I wanna do in love
And... no more, I would stress no more
Used to cry at night late awake at night hold my pillow tight, it will be alright, baby girl

At first I couldn't see me fall in deep in love again I'd rather give it all than let my heart get broke again, again
Used to fall to my knees and act oh please tell me what do I do?

I know this love's untrue, I'm heart-broken... soul trust nobody really nowhere

This ain't the way to live, I've gotta get this thing together when I'm stronger, I could love again And God knows,

I used to be doing love, confused in love
No way in knowing what I wanna do in love
And... no more, I would stress no more
Used to cry at night late awake at night hold my pillow tight, it will be alright, baby girl [x2]

See I want you to listen you ain't got to worry about a thing

You ain't gotta cry no more, no more late at night
If you waiting up, don't wait no more, you wanna leave, heya

I used to be doing love, confused in love
No way in knowing what I wanna do in love
And... no more, I would stress no more
Used to cry at night late awake at night hold my pillow
tight, it will be alright, baby girl

Don't hurt me again, no, cause I'm gonna cry no more.
