Hey, Keyshia, this your big homie $hort dog from the town

I know you big ballin', baby

But I don't wanna get no phone calls talkin' 'bout

Keyshia at the house curled up, cryin' with her heart broke

You know, you wasn't raised like that

You need to hit a club or somethin'

Goin' out, Keyshia

So while you goin' out havin' your fun

I should sit here waitin' for you

All this time I've invested in you, baby

Now you kickin' your dubs and makin' your runs

And poppin' your drink and havin' your fun

But see it's okay, 'cuz what goes around

Comes around and it's always been that way

Didn't I tell you I was gonna be the one?

Be the one and when it's all done, boy

She can't love you like I do

Didn't I tell you, boy?

Didn't I tell you?

Didn't I tell you?

Didn't I tell you?

Didn't I tell you, boy?

So now, the sun comin' up, you wanna change

But I ain't sittin' up, cryin' this year

So while you rollin' out, doin' your thing

I be poppin' my bottles, rollin' 'round clubs

Hangin' with my girls, I be havin' my fun

'Cuz I don't deserve all the games you play

Now you comin' back this way

But didn't I tell you I was gonna be the one?

Be the one and when it's all done, boy

She can't love you like I do

Didn't I tell you, boy?

Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you, boy?

You goin' out knowin' everybody's watchin'
(Hey player)
But she could never be me and you know it, baby
(She got the game)
The proof is in the puddin', ain't no way to hide it
Didn't I tell you, boy
(I know she told you)

You think you got her stuck? You must be smokin'
She got a lotta money too, she ain't no joke man
We raised her good, she got the game before the fame
Keyshia Cole, ain't nothin' changed, you know her name

You see her ridin' somethin' clean lookin' hella fly
I know you heard, she changed her mind, I'm 'bout to tell you why
She ain't stayin' at the house, she's goin' out
To some exclusive, that you don't know about

Keyshia won't be curled up, cryin' with a broke heart
She 'bout to get dressed and go party
And if you wanna run the streets, chasin' hoes, dude
She'll be out chillin' 'cuz you ain't doin' what you supposed to

Didn't I tell you I was gonna be the one?
Be the one and when it's all done, boy
She can't love you like I do
Didn't I tell you, boy?

Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you, boy?

Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you?
Didn't I tell you, boy?

Didn't I tell you?
