I guess you better familiarise yourself with me cuz the weather's all fine You know there's never no "waiting for the right kind of breeze" when pleasure all's mine

Always remember to communicate across memories cuz yesteray's gone And now it's almost time to go don't say no more because the tide's come

Familiarise
Familiarise yourself
Familiarise
Familiarise yourself with me

I guess you know this "familiar" face was put upon me the night I was born It was ma destiny that (they said) a star was above me in a wild storm

I'd like to know how many songs must an angel sing before an eye's red?
Now it's time to set off don't you know I wait for you on a saw-see bed?

So...
Familiarise
Familiarise yourself
Familiarise
Familiarise yourself with me

Communicate across memories cuz yesterday's gone
When it's time to go don't say no more because the tide's come I say the tide's come
The tide's come yeah
