She threw my guitar in the river
Pity no one over came to video
Cuz a pretty song is forever
It's more than any "pretty thing" you'll ever know
You maybe think you know better
Well so does every musician I've ever known
Cuz every woman has lover

You'll risk his life to save his best guitar
YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE

If you dig this sound you can tell her
That I made it back without a funeral
But that every song gives me "shivers"
That I never know that love could be so musical
But you maybe think you know better

Well so does every musician I've ever known
Cuz every woman has a lover
Who'll risk his life to save his best guitar
YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE

Well now that my guitar's gone forever
You'll never see me on a T.V show
Cuz the pretty ones almost never
Love you when you're only on the radio
But you maybe think you know better
Well so does every musician I've ever known
Cuz every woman has a lover
Who'll risk his life to save his best guitar
