The wind is so strong
It'll blow your conscience away
I think ill tie myself up in a neat boat
And quietly cease to exist
Because the psychological warfare
That's going on in our midst
Will put the ethics police
On your ass
So you better not try to resist

The wind is so strong
It'll blow your conscience away
The wind is so strong
It'll blow your conscience away
Chorus
Taste - Liquid desire
Fate - Destiny's fire
Love - I'll take you higher
Fate - The invisible ladder
