[Lyrics: Stefan]

my unbalanced soul is unleashed pliable desires become real in my dreams
I try in vain
to sleep on hopes and conquer the images of despair
oh...untouched beauty.. undo my anger
cherish my pain..painless one once my precious...now... be regretful with my frailty give me shelter in the darkness and protect me from innocence helpless am I ..am I so helpless ?
I am restless...release me...
confusing thoughts
forsaken trust
losing the grasp
falling into insanity
...but don't ignore
your weakness for me...
