[Lyrics: Jason]

caress your breasts so gently I sink into a paradise of my own the scales of love tip rapidly in serenity...I cry I would carve my devotion in stone
you disgust me though you're part of my desire bleak...this tragedy
I crave for affection I carve my devotion in stone two worlds they tear me for thou my love to be ?
pulsating...my wounded heart I stare at the aging mirror to this I be assuaged with hope as my enemy
