[Viviathans:]

Your world, was created so long ago.
To a place where we could hide the stones and sword.
Where no one could use the force.
Until Delinom opened the doors.

Now we must travel, a way back in time.
To a time when dark forces was born.
Those evil creatures, they will get the sign.
When someone is using the force from the stones.

The evil race from land unknown.
They try to get all the stones from you.
You have given them the sign.
And they are coming in there any time.

Now, when you have used the magical sword.
The dark forces know where's your land.
Prepare to a fight they are coming tonight.
They have army of one million men.

Time when Delinom, did use the great force.
The dark forces saw where you stand.
But when we did give the shield and the sword.
They lost the signal and entered our old land.

The evil race from land unknown.
They try to get all the stones from you.
You have given them the sign.
And they are coming in there any time.

Now, when you have used the magical sword.
The dark forces know where's your land
Prepare to a fight they are coming tonight.
They have army of one million men.

Your world, was created so long ago.
To a place where we could hide the stones and sword.
Where no one could use the force.
Until Delinom opened the doors.

Now, when you have used the magical sword.

The dark forces know where's your land
Prepare to a fight they are coming tonight.
They have army of one million men.
