I see the arms of emptiness, surrounds me
When colours of this world began to bleed

I hear how the voice is telling me, demanding
When the sounds of this world starts to seed

You can't remember what you did that night?
Behold the things inside your mind
And now you see it almost every time
You just have to follow my sign

I feel the demon inside of me it's growing
Everything that it tells, sounds so good, so right

You can't remember what you did that night?
Behold the things inside your mind
And now you see it almost every time
You just have to follow my sign

Time is the vision which will burn, love of my heart
(Love of my heart)
I have to find what causes this pain,
Which makes me insane, like a burning flame inside
my
Veins (Inside my veins)
This must be a dream, this must be a lie
I must find the reasons why

You can't remember what you did that night?
Behold the things inside your mind
And now you see it almost every time
You just have to follow my sign

Time is the vision which will burn, love of my heart
(Love of my heart)
I have to find what causes this pain,
Which makes me insane, like a burning flame inside
my
Veins (Inside my veins)
This must be a dream, this must be a lie
I must find the reasons why
Time is the vision which will burn, love of my heart

(Love of my heart)
I have to find what causes this pain,
Which makes me insane
