(Spoken by Warrior of Ice)

To the unknown I must ride
On my black armor and sword by my side
To prove that I'm man worth my pride
To find a solution to break the blue ice (yeah!)

The forest of eternal night,
And up to the mountains I see shining light
My shield will help me to survive
As I come to the castle which caused all the ice (and cold)

Must find the way inside!

Ride, and find what lies beneath the ice
On with my sword and gods roll thy dice
Truth will be found
And I will seek , fight another round

Down, in the cold I'll find unseen
The castle of snow the home of Ice Queen
I'll stop the frost
And I will fight I wont be lost, until it's done
I fought, I won my way in
After the bloodshed the armies gave in
I went deep inside a big blue hall
My eyes stood still as I gazed at big wall

Voice said you must stop thy fight!
It's not what you think what is in thy sight
I will fight you, I will defeat you
I'll rip your cold heart and melt with my fire sword

There's no help for you! Now!

Fight, and find what lies beneath the ice
On with my sword and gods roll thy dice
Truth will be found
And I will seek, fight another round

Down, in the cold I'll find unseen
The castle of snow the home of Ice Queen
I'll stop the frost
And I will fight I wont be lost, until it's done

Solo

Ride, and find what lies beneath the ice
On with my sword and gods roll thy dice
Truth will be found
And I will seek , fight another round

Down, in the cold I'll find unseen
The castle of snow the home of Ice Queen
I'll stop the frost
And I will fight I wont be lost, until it's done
