[Amardon]

I can hear the silence calling
Curtains of darkness fallen
Together we will stand, side by side

[Shemin]

I can hear how the wind blows
And how the sun glows
It's safe to walk to home, once again

Everything is so calm
And you presence is so warm
I feel safe when I'm held in your arms

[Amardon]

As the moon enters the skies
I look into your eyes
There's one question without and answer

If I were you king would you be my queen
Together we could stand, united, hand in hand
Like the stars in the sky just like them you and I
We can stay forever, together

[Shemin]

I believe those words you say
I know that we could find the way
Together we have to make it true

[Amardon]

Now remember these words of mine
I'll always stand by your side
I feel safe when I'm held in your arms

[Shemin]

Everything is so calm
And you presence is so warm
I feel safe when I'm held in your arms

[Amardon]

As the moon enters the skies
I look into your eyes
There's one thing I want you to know

Now when I'm your king and you are my queen
Together we will stand, united, hand in hand
Like the stars in the sky just like them you and I
We can stay forever, together
We will live like the King and the Queen

Now when I'm your king and you are my queen
Together we will stand, united, hand in hand
Like the stars in the sky just like them you and I
We can stay forever, together
We will live like the King and the Queen
