Destined to Shine.

Uh, yup, had to switch up on ya'll right fast man.

Cos I'm a hip hop hit, ya know what I mean?

Yeah I know my pops gonna like this one.

Momma I know you gonna like this one too.

Yeah, uh waitin for my moment I was destined to shine.

Get dough for my thoughts so pay haters no mind.

They won't get the best of me man not even the worst.

People talk sideways; well I guess it's a curse.

My purpose in life is just to entertain, so groupies & hater,

it comes with the fame.

I'm not about to back down & let all my dreams go.

As long as I breathe I'll continue to flow, ohh.

Haha, yeah in my eyes imma bad mother- shut your mouth.

Ladies love Zero & I love to dig 'em out.

I act, I rap, I'm one blessed kid.

Made my own path & I got friends doing big.

Came a long way.

Made mom & dad proud, raised me right.

That's what parents want from they child, to see us succeed & become what we can.

My pops know he did well raising a man.

Uh yeah, I hope ya'll enjoy that little quick sixteen.

Just thought I'd spit something new real quick.

I made this song to you know inspire anybody who feel like I feel.

That's destined to shine no matter what no one else says.

Remember that
