Uh, yeah a thin line between love & war.
Wear my heart like a badge, watchu fightin for?
No more by my side, I need a ride.
But every girl got a great wall, like China.
All got scares from all they past battles.
Lookin at you like "uh I can't stand you"
They swear every man is gonna be like they ex man.
If we the same then show me then genetic code then.

Yeah, I ain't got the one for all stress.
I'm a man doesn't mean there's nothing beating in my chest.
Front line for your love special like for you lust.
Feel it in your soul, huh?
I'm the one to trust.
The world full of lies & people that'll betray you.
My past girl did all that, but will you follow?
Soon see how it feels to be put in the category.
Flash backs through my head.
Tell 'em war storis.
Immaâ€;

Soldier of love, yeah, I'm a soldier.
Still waiting for love to come.
Turn it all around[x4]
Soldier of love, I'm a soldier.
