Who I am
I'm turning all cell phones all two ways all macbooks off my aim.
I'm cutting all ties to you.
It kills me you saying what I gotta do.

Cos I don't know who I am, I don't who I am, I don't who I am.
I don't know who I am anymore, anymore, anymore, anymore.

Going ghost for a while don't wanna talk I'm cool.
I'm cutting off any connections that I have to you.
Done feeling like your fool, getting you is like your tool.
Never would have though all my worst fears would come true.
Nothing feels the same, how could I ever change.
All fairs in love & war, but pleasure doesn't outweigh things.
Yeah, no matter what they ever say all fairs in love &
war but pleasure doesn't outweigh things.

During our time girl, it was our perfection.
Staring in the mirror don't recognize my reflection.
I don't know that man, that ain't Khleo, I don't know this person.

You pose in a form of a goddess.
Being tarnished you were just using polish.
She changed me into something I'm not.
No more connection girl, your signals been dropped.

Repeat First verse.
