She was a witness, a silent player
The missing link that they never found
Lose a best friend...Watch a life end...
Two shots went off and they both hit the ground
From out of nowhere...In like a nightmare...
Why did it go the way that it went down?
"He really did it! I won't forget it!
It's painful now that mom is all gone!"
Peripheral visions cut down on the sides
Your set of blinders they don't bother your new eyes
Tread round in circles cut holes in the place
I can't get past your tired face

Does it...Does it boil your blood?

She was a witness, a silent player
The missing link that they never found
Steps are retraced...Feelings replaced...
Ears are ringing 'cause the sound is too loud
Sit back and recline...The tapes on rewind...
Hit the switch 'cause it's time to shutdown
"I'm frustrated! They could've waited!
I'm gonna blow my lid and let it all out!"
Peripheral visions cut down on the sides
Your set of blinders they don't bother your new eyes
Tread round in circles cut holes in the place
I can't get past your tired face

Does it...Does it boil your blood?

Say goodbye...No more lies...
In disguise...Truth will rise...
Say goodbye...No more lies...
In disguise...Truth will rise...
Peripheral visions cut down on the sides
Your set of blinders they don't bother your new eyes
Tread round in circles cut holes in the place
I can't get past your tired face

Does it...Does it boil your blood?
