Went to the drive thru
Knew I'd see you
Collected my food
Checked in the rear view
And you were playing
On the back of my mind
So I ate what I bought
Went thru one more time

And I wonder if she knows
When she passes me that meal
Or do my eyes show
How much I really feel
And I wonder if she knows
When she passes me that meal
Or do my eyes show
How much I really feel

I knew that you would be there
You're always there at that time
And when you pass me my fries
I rise in my Calvin Kleins
I thought that you would be there
You're always there at that that time
And if you're not then that's fine
I'll go inside get in line

Love you to take time out
From your heavy schedule
Take a break from the gruelling work
Book sick if possible
Love you to take time out
From your heavy schedule
Take a break from the gruelling work
Book sick if possible

I'd love for you to take your time out
Love for you to take your take your
Love for you to take your time out
Love for you to take your take your time

And I love Donuts

And I love Apple pies
But not that much
To go back so many times
And I love Donuts
And I love Apple pies
But not that much
To go back so many times
